

Ark Community Charter School Food Service Policy

ACCS participates in the federal and state breakfast and lunch programs. Meals are prepared in our kitchen by our food service provider, Kim O'Donnell. Kim follows all health and safety guidelines set forth by the local municipality and the Office of Children and Family Services. She abides by all government guideline for use of government commodities.