

3rd Grade Goes to Landis Arboretum

On Friday, October 10th the 3rd graders went on a forest ecology hike through the woods to explore different types of trees, leaves, and insects! We went on a leaf investigation to find all the different types of leaves that existed in the forest. We looked under rocks and logs to find the bugs that help the leaves break down. We also got to meet some cool animals with backbones called vertebrates!

