

1st Grade News!

March 26, 2010

Here's what's happening in Room 25!

Math: We started Chapter 8 this week! We are learning about tens and ones places, expanded forms for numbers, and different ways to make the same number!

ELA: This week's story was The Lady in the Moon a realistic fiction story about how children in China celebrate the Moon Festival and how it is similar to Thanksgiving here!

Theme Study & Writer's Workshop:

We are discussing primitive people and how they lived. We are discussing their different wants & needs, the make-up of caves, and early inventions that still help us today! In writer's workshop, we are using adjectives to write silly poems!

March 22, 2010:
Happy 32nd Birthday
Miss Tara!!

Upcoming News:

~ Next Week our story will be Peter's Chair. Have you ever given away something special?
~ 'Words to Know' to practice at home: remember, room, stood, picture, though

We love to build!

Standing as still as statues, for 5 minutes!

Figuring out positions from 1st to 20th!

IMPORTANT DATES:

SPRING BREAK

April 2nd – 9th

NO SCHOOL!!