

1st Grade News!

April 1, 2010

Here's what's happening in Room 25!

Math: This week we learned what $<$ (less than), $>$ (greater than, and $=$ (equal to) means, estimating on a number line, and 1 more/1 less, 10 more/10 less.

ELA: This week's story was Peter's Chair a realistic fiction story about young boy learning to give up something very special for his new baby sister!

Theme Study & Writer's Workshop:

We completed our primitive people's unit with an oral presentation, "If I could invent something, what would it be?" We saw inventions from a car that goes under water to a pencil that does your homework for you! In writer's workshop, we finished our poems that will be read at the next All School Morning Meeting. We also continued learning about all the different kinds of adjectives and how they help us in our writing!

Upcoming News:

~ Our story after break will be Henry and Mudge.
What treasures do you share with your neighbors?
~ 'Words to Know' to practice at home: told, because, across, opened, only, shoes, dance

WE LOVE ICE CREAM!!!!!!

IMPORTANT DATES:
Have a
WONDERFUL Spring Break!!!

We had a great time on our fieldtrip to Stewart's!!!!
