

Last week your child learned these amazing words. Ask them if they can tell you what they mean:

perch
nape gentle nudge survive

Half Day
this Friday, October 30th Dismissal
at 11 a.m.

First Grade Parent Newsletter: Miss Tara 1B, October 26, 2009

This week we are reading the stories "Animal Park" and "Animal Poetry." Also, in the boxes are 4 sentences for your child to read to you as practice each night. Please check off or initial below as they read the sentences nightly. Continue to look for Decodable Readers in your child's folder. Encourage your child to read and re-read these short books to family and friends for fluency practice.

Words to Know: home, into, many, them

Short 'u' Words: run, cut, must, sun, up, bump, jump, bus, nut, rug

I run home.

You must have many friends.

She rides the bus with them.

The cat ran into the box.

I read my sentences:

___Monday ___Tuesday ___Wednesday ___Thursday ___Friday