

First Grade Parent Newsletter: Miss Tara 1B, November 9, 2009

This week we are reading the stories "The Farmer and the Hat" and "The Helping Hands of 4-H." In the boxes are 5 sentences for your child to read to you as practice each night. Please check off or initial below as they read the sentences nightly. Continue to look for Decodable Readers in your child's folder. Encourage your child to read and re-read these short books to family and friends for fluency practice.

Words to Know (please remember these words mostly cannot be sounded out): be, could, horse, old, paper

Long a words: face, made, age, safe, take, make, cage, cake, late, name

Pam drew a horse on paper.

Ted could not be late.

The bird was in an old cage.

Jan can ride the old horse.

I like to make paper airplanes to take home.

I read my sentences:

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday