Have you ever had a friend like Ixis? Well, I did and I'm going to tell you about her and what she looks like.

Ixis has long pretty black hair that gets done everyday. She smells like Britney Spears perfume. She has nice handwriting and I wish I could write like her. She's a giggler and when she laughs; it also makes me laugh. Sometimes when we are mad at each other, we work it out.

She is also a great dancer. She and I always used to sing all the time for practice. Ixis is a real girly-girl. She likes the color pink and Hannah Montana. Whenever she looks at me writing in pen she says, "Oh, that's pretty!" I love her name because it sounds nice for her. She likes my middle name which is Monayshia.

My best friend is Ixis because she is truthful. I don't like when people are mean. That's why she is my best friend.
